GUEST SPEAKER:

Jeff Nussbaum,
Former Presidential Speechwriter and Author of 'Undelivered'

UCF's Office of Global Perspectives and International Initiatives (GPII) is excited to host Jeff Nussbaum, former Special Assistant and Senior Speechwriter to President Joe Biden. Nussbaum will discuss his new book Undelivered: The Never-Heard Speeches That Would Have Rewritten History. The book presents a fascinating insight into the most notable speeches that were never heard, speeches that if delivered would have changed the course of history – from John Lewis to General Eisenhower to King Edward VIII.

Undelivered: The Never-Heard Speeches That Would Have Rewritten History will be available for purchase and signing at the event.
