

A visitor visa is for temporary visits to the United States for the purpose of business or pleasure.

- B-1: temporary visit for business
- B-2: temporary visit for pleasure
- WB: visa waiver program for business
- WT: visa waiver program for pleasure

Those in visitor status are not permitted to enroll in a course of study. However, they may enroll in “casual, short-term classes that are not the primary purpose” for the visit to the U.S.

Limitations on study in the English Language Institute in visitor status:

- May take up to 3 ELI classes per session
- May enroll in up to 3 total sessions
- May not earn a certificate of completion
- Not eligible for the Undergraduate Track program

DECLARATION OF INTENT & UNDERSTANDING

I declare that my main purpose for being in the United States is tourism. My enrollment in the English Language Institute at the University of Central Florida is for pleasure and is not the primary purpose of my visit.

My purpose in the U.S. is for the following reason(s):

Check all that apply:

- Business (B-1 or WB only)
- Sightseeing
- Visiting family/friends
- Vacation

I understand that I must follow the enrollment restrictions listed above. If I enroll in more than 3 classes per session or if I enroll in more than 3 sessions, I will be dropped from classes that exceed these parameters.
