

Goal, Objectives, and Student Learning Outcomes

Level 3 – Vocational Listening/Speaking/Pronunciation

Goal:

Strengthen listening and speaking skills to prepare for the workplace. Improve pronunciation through extensive practice.

Objectives (functions/ structures taught)

- Building everyday vocabulary
- Recognizing main ideas through stressed words within a phrase
- Demonstrating understanding of a listening through class discussions, comprehension questions and assessments
- Listening for signposts
- Listening for specific information
- Restating key ideas
- Answering questions, orally, on every day and thematic topics with correct register
- Utilizing graphic organizers to take notes
- Recognizing a speaker's tone.
- Providing information about past, present and future activities
- Ask for and respond to supervisor feedback at work
- Conduct a job search online

Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs) (measured/assessed/ mastered)

- Identify main ideas and details in a listening
- Restate main ideas and details in a listening
- Utilize notes to organize information in a listening
- Roleplay a conversation on present, past and future activities
- State opinions offering support in spoken English, utilizing B1 vocabulary and North American syllable stress and intonation patterns.
- Respond appropriately to suggestions at work