

Biography

UCF GLOBAL

Christina Khan

Director

Christina Khan is a director at UCF Global. She is an international educator with over 18 years of experience in supporting, advising, and mentoring international students and scholars. She joined the University of Central Florida in June 2016 and serves as a director of UCF Global.

She has previously served as Assistant Director of the Office of International Programs at the University of Texas at El Paso, the Assistant Dean and Director of International Student Services at Colgate University, where she launched the first Office of International Student Services and established programs and services to promote student success, resilience, and collective care, and as an International Student Adviser at The University of Akron.

Christina is deeply committed to social justice, student advocacy, human-centered design, and creating space for dialogue and understanding. She received her MA in Interdisciplinary Studies from the University of Central Florida and BA in Spanish and Latin American Studies as a first-generation college student from The University of Akron.