

Biography

UCF GLOBAL

Jennifer Haddad

Program Director

Jennifer Haddad is Program Director of Engagement at UCF Global with thirty years of experience in the field of education with a Master's Degree from Boston University concentrating on Intercultural Studies, Curriculum and Literacy.

Jennifer specializes in program management and program development. In her current position, she cultivates internal partnerships at UCF and engages the local, international and UCF communities in business development initiatives to elevate awareness of the UCF Global programs as well as amplify academic and customized programming.

A strong believer in the power of positive thinking in the workplace, Jennifer regularly develops ways to cultivate collaborative initiatives and strengthen work relationships to foster work environments that are productive, creative, and energized!