UCF GLOBAL

Mark Hartman

Director

Mark Hartman serves as the director for international recruitment and partnerships for UCF Global at the University of Central Florida, located in Orlando, Florida.

In addition to promoting student recruitment efforts, his role includes exploring and seeking mutually beneficial partnerships with community, government and educational institutions to help provide high impact, global experiences in collaboration with UCF.

He also serves as the director for the Florida-Canada and Florida-Eastern Europe Linkage Institutes hosted by UCF Global to promote educational, cultural and economic ties with Canada and countries in Eastern Europe.

He has a background in organizational and cross-cultural psychology and earned his master's degree from UCF. Prior to joining UCF, Mark worked in organizational development and consulting, in addition to spending several years living and teaching in Asia.
