

Designing for Interaction & Integration: Artists in Exile

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 2022 | 1:00PM - 2:00PM EST

BARBARA YING CENTER - ROOM 101
12815 SCHOLARSHIP DRIVE, ORLANDO, FLORIDA 32816

GUEST SPEAKER:

Dr. Zeynep Arda,
Chair of the Visual Communication Design Department at Izmir University of Economics in Turkey

The Middle Eastern Studies Program and GPII are excited to invite you to an in-person presentation titled: "Designing for Interaction & Integration: Artists in Exile." Dr. Zeynep Arda, the Chair of the Visual Communication Design Department at Izmir University of Economics in Turkey, will discuss the identity issues, resilience, and evolvement of artists in exile.

This discussion is moderated by Dr. Victor M. Davila, an Associate Professor of Graphic Design and Illustration at UCF's School of Visual Art and Design.

For more information: tinyurl.com/artists-in-exile-ucf
Register here: tinyurl.com/artists-in-exile-ucf-2

UCF | UCF Global